

SEASONS OF GRAY

A MODERN DAY JOSEPH STORY

GROUP DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

Hated and betrayed by his brothers, Brady Gray is forced off of the family ranch and must start a new life in Dallas. With a good job and a promising romance, better days seem to lie ahead until Brady is framed for a crime he didn't commit.

Based on the story of Joseph, Seasons of Gray tells us the ultimate story of grace, forgiveness, and hope. These questions can help you, your family, or your group unpack the powerful message of hope found in Seasons of Gray.

1. What in the movie made you angry?
2. What in the movie made you laugh?
3. What character could you most relate to?
4. What was your favorite scene?
5. Did you recognize that story as one that has parallels with a bible story?
6. Do you see the parallels with Joseph's story and Jesus' story?
7. Have you ever been aware of anybody doing anything as radical as Brady did at the end of that movie?
8. When was a time in your life that you felt as abandoned, betrayed and forgotten as Brady?
9. What was ultimately the source of Brady's radical love?
10. Have you ever received radical love like Brady offers Ryan and his brothers?